SHEEP

STUDIO AHEAD
The soft, gently nestled shapes of the Sheep bed are reminiscent of a Brancusi sculpture, albeit without the stylized face. That said, Studio Ahead's founders, Elena Dendiberia and Homan Rajai, cite the smooth stones on Muir Beach, about 17 miles northwest of their San Francisco studio, as their inspiration. The bed's merino-wool-felt upholstery by JG Switzer, sheared from Northern California sheep, is equally as appealing. The bed is biomorphism at its best.
